Division 3  Constitutional basis for this Act and the Transitional Act

Section 10

Laws of non-referring States

(3) To the extent that a registered training organisation is an NVR registered training organisation that operates in a non-referring State, the organisation is not subject to a law of the non-referring State that relates to:

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a declaration to the extent prescribed by the regulations.
11 Addressing inconsistency between Commonwealth and State and Territory laws

(1) This section has effect despite anything else in this Act or the Transitional Act.

(2) This section applies to the interaction between a provision (the displacement provision) of a law of a referring State or a Territory and a provision (the Commonwealth provision) of this Act or the Transitional Act only if the displacement provision is declared by a law of the State or Territory to be a VET legislation displacement provision for the purposes of this section (either generally or specifically in relation to the Commonwealth provision).

(3) The Commonwealth provision does not:
   (a) prohibit the doing of an act; or
   (b) impose a liability (whether civil or criminal) for doing an act;
   if the displacement provision specifically permits, authorises or requires the doing of that act.

(4) The Commonwealth provision does not operate in or in relation to the State or Territory to the extent necessary to ensure that no inconsistency arises between:
   (a) the Commonwealth provision; and
   (b) the displacement provision to the extent to which the displacement provision would, apart from this subsection, be inconsistent with the Commonwealth provision.

Note: The displacement provision is not covered by this subsection if subsection (3) applies to the displacement provision: if that subsection applies there would be no potential inconsistency to be dealt with by this subsection.

(5) Subsections (3) and (4) do not apply in relation to the displacement provision to the extent to which the regulations provide that those subsections do not apply in relation to the displacement provision.

13 Acts not to apply so as to exceed Commonwealth power

(1) Unless the contrary intention appears, if a provision of this Act or the Transitional Act:

   (a) would, apart from this section, have an application (an invalid application) in relation to:

       (i) one or more particular persons, things, matters, places, circumstances or cases; or

       (ii) one or more classes (however defined or determined) of persons, things, matters, places, circumstances or cases; because of which the provision exceeds the Commonwealth’s legislative power; and

   (b) also has at least one application (a valid application) in relation to:

       (i) one or more particular persons, things, matters, places, circumstances or cases; or

       (ii) one or more classes (however defined or determined) of persons, things, matters, places, circumstances or cases; that, if it were the provision’s only application, would be within the Commonwealth’s legislative power; and it is the Parliament’s intention that the provision is not to have the invalid application, but is to have every valid application.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the provision is not to have a particular valid application if:
(a) apart from this section, it is clear, taking into account the provision’s context and the purpose or object underlying this Act or the Transitional Act, as the case may be, that the provision was intended to have that valid application only if every invalid application, or a particular invalid application, of the provision had also been within the Commonwealth’s legislative power; or

(b) the provision’s operation in relation to that valid application would be different in a substantial respect from what would have been its operation in relation to that valid application if every invalid application of the provision had been within the Commonwealth’s legislative power.

(3) Subsection (2) does not limit the cases where a contrary intention may be taken to appear for the purposes of subsection (1).

(4) This section applies to a provision of this Act and the Transitional Act, whether enacted on or after the day this section commences.

(ii) in any other case—within a period specified in the notice, which must be at least 72 hours.
(2) After considering any response received within that period, if the National VET Regulator still considers that the decision should be made, the Regulator:

   (b) the VET Regulator of each non-referring State.

(2) Advice given under subsection (1) must state the day from which the proposed cancellation is to take effect.

(3) Advice given under paragraph (1)(a) to an NVR registered training organisation must also:
   (a) advise the organisation how it is to treat VET students in the VET accredited course; and
   (b) if the proposed cancellation would affect any conditions imposed on the organisation’s registration under subsection 29(1)—state what conditions will be imposed on the organisation’s registration from the day the proposed cancellation takes effect.

54 When cancellation takes effect

(1) Cancellation of the accreditation of a VET accredited course takes effect on a day determined by the National VET Regulator.

Note: Section 42 (disallowance) and Part 6 (sunsetting) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 do not apply to a determination (see sections 44 and 54 of that Act).

(2) However, the day determined by the National VET Regulator must:

Section 56

Division 2—Cancellation of VET qualifications and VET statements of attainment

Subdivision A—Cancellation

56 National VET Regulator may cancel VET qualifications and VET statements of attainment

(1) The National VET Regulator may cancel a VET qualification or VET statement of attainment issued to a person by an NVR registered training organisation or former registered training organisation if the Regulator is satisfied on reasonable grounds that:

(a) the organisation did not provide, or arrange for another person to provide, all or part of the assessment necessary for the person to achieve the learning outcomes or competencies required for:
   (i) the qualification; or
   (ii) the units of competency or modules specified in the statement; or

(b) the qualification or statement was issued by the organisation:
   (i) in error; or
   (ii) because of a document or representation that was false or misleading, or was obtained or made in any other improper way; or

(c) it was outside the organisation’s scope of registration to issue the qualification or statement to the person; or

(d) it is appropriate, in all the circumstances, because of action the Regulator has taken, or is taking, in relation to:
   (i) the VET course, or part of the VET course, to which the qualification relates; or
   (ii) the organisation, in respect of the VET course, or part of the VET course, to which the qualification relates; or
   (iii) part of the VET course to which the statement relates; or
(iv) the organisation, in respect of part of the VET course to which the statement relates.

(2) However, the National VET Regulator may only take action under subsection (1) in relation to an NVR registered training organisation if:
   (a) the Regulator gives the organisation a written direction requiring the organisation to:
      (i) cancel the VET qualification or VET statement of attainment; and
      (ii) notify the person concerned, in writing, of the cancellation; within a period specified in the direction; and
   (b) the organisation fails to comply with the direction within the period specified in the direction.

(3) To avoid doubt, if an NVR registered training organisation has been given a written direction under paragraph (2)(a), the organisation may cancel the relevant VET qualification or VET statement of attainment even if the organisation’s scope of registration no longer allows the organisation to issue the qualification or statement.

(4) The National VET Regulator may take action under subsection (1) in relation to a former registered training organisation at any time.

57 National VET Regulator to notify person concerned of proposed cancellation

(1) Before the National VET Regulator cancels a person’s VET qualification or VET statement of attainment, the Regulator must give the person a written notice:
   (a) stating that the Regulator intends to cancel the person’s qualification or statement and the reasons for the proposed cancellation; and
   (b) inviting the person to give the Regulator a written response to the notice:
Section 58

(i) if the Regulator considers that the circumstances require urgent action—within a period specified in the notice, which must be at least 24 hours; or
(ii) in any other case—within a period specified in the notice, which must be at least 14 days.

(2) If the National VET Regulator is unable to give notice to a person personally, the Regulator may give a notice mentioned in subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) in any other way it considers appropriate, including by:

      (i) a national daily newspaper that circulates throughout Australia; and
      (ii) a regional daily newspaper of the State or Territory in which the person concerned is believed to reside.

(3) To avoid doubt, the National VET Regulator may not give a notice mentioned in subparagraph (1)(b)(i) in a way mentioned in subsection (2).

58 National VET Regulator’s consideration of response

(1) After considering any response received within a period specified in a notice, if the National VET Regulator still considers that the VET qualification or VET statement of attainment should be cancelled, the Regulator must cancel the qualification or statement.

(2) If the National VET Regulator cancels a VET qualification or VET statement of attainment, the Regulator must:
   (a) give the person concerned written notice of the decision; and
   (b) require the person concerned to return the qualification or statement to the Regulator:
      (i) in the case of a notice mentioned in subparagraph 57(1)(b)(i)—within 7 days after the date of that notice; or
Section 59

(ii) in the case of a notice mentioned in subparagraph 57(1)(b)(ii)—within 30 days after the date of that notice or within 30 days after the date the notice is published, as the case requires.

59 When cancellation takes effect

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the cancellation of a person’s VET qualification or VET statement of attainment takes effect:
   (a) in the case of a notice mentioned in subparagraph 57(1)(b)(i)—7 days after the date of the notice; and
   (b) in the case of a notice mentioned in subparagraph 57(1)(b)(ii)—30 days after the date of the notice or 30 days after the date the notice is published, as the case requires.

(2) If:
   (a) a person has applied to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the National VET Regulator’s decision to cancel the person’s VET qualification or VET statement of attainment within the relevant 30 day period, as mentioned in subparagraph 58(2)(b)(ii); and
   (b) the person notifies the Regulator, in writing, of that fact within the relevant 30 day period; and
   (c) the decision of the Tribunal affirms the National VET Regulator’s cancellation decision; cancellation of the qualification or statement takes effect when the appeal is finally determined or otherwise disposed of.

(7) The authorised officer must give notice to the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, of his or her intention to apply for an extension. The occupier or other person is entitled to be heard in relation to that application.

(8) The provisions of this Division relating to the issue of monitoring warrants apply, with such modifications as are necessary, to the issue of an extension.
The 24 hour period may be extended more than once.

68 Enforcement powers of authorised officers

(1) The following are the enforcement powers that an authorised officer may exercise in relation to premises under section 66:

   (b) the power to operate electronic equipment on the premises to put the evidential material in documentary form and remove the documents so produced from the premises;

   (c) the power to operate electronic equipment on the premises to transfer the evidential material to a disk, tape or other storage device that:

       or

then the enforcement powers include seizing the thing.

69 Persons assisting authorised officers

Authorised officers may be assisted by other persons

(1) An authorised officer may, in entering premises under section 66 and in exercising monitoring powers or enforcement powers in relation to the premises, be assisted by other persons if that assistance is necessary and reasonable. A person giving such assistance is a person assisting the authorised officer.

Powers of a person assisting the authorised officer

(2) A person assisting the authorised officer may:

(a) enter the premises; and

(b) exercise monitoring powers or enforcement powers in relation to the premises, but only in accordance with a direction given to the person by the authorised officer.

   (ii) information provided under this Act; or
   (iii) the reasons for the authorised officer entering the premises;

73  Announcement before entry under warrant

(1) An authorised officer must, before entering premises under a warrant:
   (a) announce that he or she is authorised to enter the premises; and

(c) give any person at the premises an opportunity to allow entry to the premises.

(2) However, an authorised officer is not required to comply with subsection (1) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the premises is required to ensure that the effective execution of the warrant is not frustrated.

(3) If:
   (a) an authorised officer does not comply with subsection (1) because of subsection (2); and
   (b) the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, is present at the premises; the authorised officer must, as soon as practicable after entering the

(ii) assessing the correctness of information provided under this Act; that may be accessible by operating electronic equipment on the premises; and

(b) expert assistance is required to operate the equipment; and

(c) if he or she does not take action under this subsection, the information may be destroyed, altered or otherwise interfered with;

he or she may do whatever is necessary to secure the equipment, whether by locking it up, placing a guard or other means.
Enforcement powers

(a) there is on the premises evidential material of the kind specified in the warrant that may be accessible by operating electronic equipment on the premises; and

(b) expert assistance is required to operate the equipment; and

(c) if he or she does not take action under this subsection, the evidential material may be destroyed, altered or otherwise interfered with;

Notice to occupier

(4) The authorised officer must give notice to the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, of his or her intention to secure the equipment under subsection (2) or (3) and of the fact that the equipment may be secured for up to 24 hours.

(5) The equipment may be secured:

(a) until the 24 hour period ends; or

(b) until the equipment has been operated by the expert; whichever happens first.

   (a) as a result of electronic equipment being operated as mentioned in this Division:
      (i) damage is caused to the equipment; or
      (ii) the data recorded on the equipment is damaged; or
      (iii) programs associated with the use of the equipment, or with the use of the data, are damaged or corrupted; and
   (b) the damage or corruption occurs because:
      (i) insufficient care was exercised in selecting the person who was to operate the equipment; or
      (ii) insufficient care was exercised by the person operating the equipment.

(2) The Commonwealth must pay the owner of the equipment, or the user of the data or programs, such reasonable compensation for the damage or corruption as the Commonwealth and the owner or user agree on.

(3) However, if the owner or user and the Commonwealth fail to agree, the owner or user may institute proceedings in the Federal Court for such reasonable amount of compensation as the Federal Court determines.

(4) In determining the amount of compensation payable, regard is to be had to whether the occupier of the premises, or the occupier’s employees and agents, if they were available at the time, provided any appropriate warning or guidance on the operation of the equipment.

(5) In this section:

   damage, in relation to data, includes damage by erasure of data or addition of other data.

(2) The right to observe the execution of the warrant ceases if the occupier or other person impedes that execution.

    person who apparently represents the occupier, must provide:

(b) a storage device, the information in which can be readily copied;

the authorised officer must, if requested to do so by the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier and who is present when the warrant is executed, give a copy of the thing or the information to the occupier or other person as soon as practicable after the seizure.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if possession of the document, film, computer file, thing or information by the occupier or other person could constitute an offence against a law of the Commonwealth.

(1) If a thing is seized under this Division, an authorised officer must provide a receipt for the thing.

(2) If 2 or more things are seized, they may be covered in the one receipt.

   (b) the period of 60 days after its seizure ends;

whichever happens first, unless the thing is forfeited or forfeitable to the Commonwealth or is the subject of a dispute as to ownership.

(2) If, apart from this subsection, an authorised officer would be required to take reasonable steps to return a thing under subsection (1) because of paragraph (1)(b), the authorised officer is not required to do so if:
Section 83

(1) An authorised officer may apply to a magistrate for an order permitting the retention of the thing for a further period if:
   (a) before the end of 60 days after the seizure; or
   (b) before the end of a period previously specified in an order of a magistrate under this section; proceedings in respect of which the thing may afford evidence have not commenced.

(2) If the magistrate is satisfied that it is necessary for the thing to continue to be retained:
   (a) for the purposes of an investigation in respect of:
      (i) an offence against this Act or an offence against the Crimes Act 1914 or the Criminal Code that relates to this Act; or

84 Disposal of things

If:
   (a) a thing is seized under this Division; and
   (b) apart from this section, an authorised officer would be required to take reasonable steps to return the thing to a person; and
   (c) either:
      (i) the authorised officer cannot, despite making reasonable efforts, locate the person; or
      (ii) the person has refused to take possession of the thing;
the National VET Regulator may dispose of the thing in such manner as the Regulator considers appropriate.

evidence of information given or evidence of production of documents by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual for an offence if:
(a) the individual previously gave the information or produced the documents in proceedings against the individual for a pecuniary penalty order for a contravention of a civil penalty provision whether or not the order was made; and
(b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct that was claimed to constitute the contravention.

Section 191

Subdivision D—Miscellaneous

191 How the Ministerial Council gives agreement

The Ministerial Council is to give its agreement, for the purposes of a provision of this Act, by resolution of the Council passed in accordance with the procedures determined by the Council.
Division 2—Conferral of functions and powers by State law

Subdivision A—Conferral of functions and powers

192 Commonwealth consent to conferral of functions etc. on the National VET Regulator by corresponding State laws

(1) A corresponding State law may confer functions or powers, or impose duties, on the National VET Regulator.

(2) Subsection (1) does not authorise the conferral of a function or power, or the imposition of a duty, by a corresponding State law to the extent to which:
   (a) the conferral or imposition, or the authorisation, would contravene any constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the National VET Regulator; or
   (b) the authorisation would otherwise exceed the legislative power of the Commonwealth.

(3) Subsection (1) does not extend to a function, power or duty of a kind specified in regulations made for the purposes of this subsection.

(4) This Act is not intended to exclude or limit the operation of a corresponding State law that confers any functions or powers, or imposes any duties, on the National VET Regulator to the extent to which that law:
   (a) is consistent with subsections (1) to (3); and
   (b) is capable of operating concurrently with this Act.

193 Meaning of imposes a duty

For the purposes of this Act, a corresponding State law imposes a duty on the National VET Regulator if:

(a) the corresponding State law confers a function or power on the Regulator; and
Part 8 Commonwealth-State arrangements
Division 2 Conferral of functions and powers by State law

Section 194

(b) the circumstances in which the function or power is conferred give rise to an obligation on the Regulator to perform the function or to exercise the power.

194 When duty imposed

Application

(1) This section applies if a corresponding State law purports to impose a duty on the National VET Regulator.

State legislative power sufficient to support duty

(2) The duty is taken not to be imposed by this Act (or any other law of the Commonwealth) to the extent to which:

(a) imposing the duty is within the legislative powers of the State concerned; and

(b) imposing the duty by the corresponding State law is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the National VET Regulator.

Note: If this subsection applies, the duty will be taken to be imposed by force of the corresponding State law (the Commonwealth having consented under section 192 to the imposition of the duty by the corresponding State law).

Commonwealth legislative power sufficient to support duty but State legislative powers are not

(3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by force of the corresponding State law), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Act to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.

(4) If, because of subsection (3), this Act is taken to impose the duty, it is the intention of the Parliament to rely on all powers available to it under the Constitution to support the imposition of the duty by this Act.

(5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Act in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:
(a) is within the legislative powers of the Commonwealth; and
(b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the National VET Regulator.

(6) To avoid doubt, neither this Act nor any other law of the Commonwealth imposes a duty on the National VET Regulator to the extent to which imposing such a duty would:
(a) contravene any constitutional doctrine restricting the duties
that may be imposed on the Regulator; or
(b) otherwise exceed the legislative power of the Commonwealth.

(7) Subsections (1) to (6) do not limit section 192.

195 Duty imposed by corresponding State law applying
Commonwealth law

(1) This section:
(a) applies only for the purposes of the application of the provisions of this Act or another law of the Commonwealth (with or without modification) as a law of a State by a provision of a corresponding State law; and
(b) does not apply for those purposes if the corresponding State law otherwise provides.

(2) If the corresponding State law purports to impose a duty on the National VET Regulator to do a particular thing, the duty is taken to be imposed by the corresponding State law to the extent to which imposing the duty:
(a) is within the legislative powers of the State; and
(b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Regulator.

(3) To avoid doubt, the corresponding State law does not impose the duty on the National VET Regulator to the extent to which imposing the duty would:
(a) contravene any constitutional doctrine restricting the duties
that may be imposed on the Regulator; or
(b) otherwise exceed the legislative powers of the State.
Part 8 Commonwealth-State arrangements
Division 2 Conferral of functions and powers by State law

Section 196

(4) If imposing on the National VET Regulator the duty to do that thing would:
(a) contravene any constitutional doctrine restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Regulator; or
(b) otherwise exceed the legislative powers of both the State and the Commonwealth;
the corresponding State law is taken instead to confer on the Regulator a power to do that thing at the discretion of the Regulator.

Subdivision B—Jurisdiction of federal courts

196 Conferral of jurisdiction on federal courts
If:
(a) a provision of a corresponding State law purports to apply a provision of a law of the Commonwealth (the applied provision) as a law of the State; and
(b) the applied provision purports to confer jurisdiction in relation to a matter on a federal court;
the jurisdiction in relation to that matter is taken to be conferred on the court by this section.

Subdivision C—Administrative decisions
